

Working through Marriage problems

Wrap up of Ephesians 5:2-33

God designed marriage to be a testimony to the world of His own character. In God's design, marriage would be a source of companionship, a way to reproduce godly children, a deterrent to immorality, a cause of great personal joy and a catalyst for greater ministry.

If you know your Creator through Jesus Christ and are seeking to live out your purpose in Him and trying to follow God's instructions for your marriage, then why do you and your spouse sometimes experience marital struggles?

Ever since the fall of mankind, people have been sinful and rebellions at heart. But Christian couples have the resources to insulate marriage against the effects of sin. You can depend on the Holy Spirit to walk according to the Word of God. So how do Christians experience deep intimacy in marriage?

#1 Get better at _____

Biblical love shows interest in how others feel, what they think, and what they say. Good lines of communication are essential for marital oneness; genuine love shows verbal attention.

1st Tell everything to God _____, in prayer Philippians 4:6

If you pray before you speak, your words can demonstrate the character of Christ.

2nd Commit to speaking _____ Ephesians 4:25

Never disclosing your true feelings only leads to counterfeit peace

3rd Commit to speak with _____ Psalm 141:3

True oneness in marriage is found by couples who learn to control their speech by yielding to the indwelling Holy Spirit.

A self-controlled tongue contains words that build up, well-timed Ephesians 4:29 and will listen more than talk James 1:19; Proverbs 18:13

#2 Enjoy _____ intimacy

God affirms that in marriage sex is honorable. Hebrews 13:4 Yet sexual intimacy can be a source of dissatisfaction and discord. Why?

1 - Unresolved guilt

Guilt over memories of illegitimate sexual experiences from the past can be an obstacle in your marriage relationship. Psalm 33:3-5

2 - A warning indicator of other problems

Sexual problems in marriage are often a warning indicator of underlying problems in your marriage.

3 - Misinformation

If you have believed worldly lies about sex, your expectations will be false.

Fill your mind with the Word of God to find God's blueprint for sexual intimacy.

1 Corinthians 7:3 Let the husband fulfill his duty to his wife, and likewise also the wife to her husband. 4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; and likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. 5 Stop depriving one another, except by agreement for a time, that you may devote yourselves to prayer, and come together again, lest Satan tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

- Treat physical intimacy as your most precious GIFT from God in marriage.
- Treat sexual intimacy as a COMMAND.

Verse 3 commands ...husband, fulfill your duty to your wife

Verse 4 commands ...stop depriving one another

When you don't fulfill each other's desires, you are setting yourself up for satanic attack (5 ...lest Satan tempt you). Husbands, learn to be affectionate without using every gesture of affection to lead to intimacy. And wives learn to meet your husband's needs for intimacy.

#3 Learn to control your _____

Marital oneness requires unity in the issue of money. Be committed to sharing the material blessings God has given you. Learn God's blueprint for money and commit to living by it:

1 God alone gives you the ability to make money Deuteronomy 8:17

2 Everything you have belongs to God Psalm 24:1

3 There are many things more valuable than money

Mt. 16:6 For what will a man be profited if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul?

Prov. 16:16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold

Prov. 22:1 A good name is to be more desired than great riches

1 Tim. 6:6 Godliness is a means of great gain

4 Worry, discontent and covetousness are sins Hebrews 13:5

5 God wants you to do honest, hard work and to share what you have

Ephesians 4:28

6 Giving to the church is a privilege and a responsibility

2 Corinthians 9: &; 1 Corinthians 16:1-2

Take God's financial principles and put them into a budget. A budget allows you to be a good steward of your finances—God doesn't want finances to tear your family apart. Proverbs 23:4 Do not weary yourself to gain wealth, Cease from your consideration of it.

#4 _____ your spouse

Stubbornness about forgiving is perhaps the greatest problem in marriage. But the Bible commands us never to go to bed angry because bitterness and grudges give Satan an opportunity to tempt you. Ephesians. 4:26 do not let the sun go down on your anger, 27 and do not give the devil an opportunity.

We have an obligation in all our relationships, and especially in marriage, to keep short accounts and readily forgive. Jesus forgave you when you deserved eternal death, so don't you think you should forgive your spouse?

#5 Agree to _____ your kids biblically

Ephesians 6:4 And fathers, do not provoke your children to anger; but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Discussion Questions

1. What things does your spouse like to talk about? Be honest—do you ever find yourself groaning when those topics come up? How much time do you think you spend each day really listening to what your spouse wants to share with you? (1 hour? ½ hour? 15 minutes?)

2. Do you sometimes have a "short fuse?" How frequently do you unleash frustrations on your spouse? How does your spouse respond? Describe the connection between controlling your temper and trusting God?

3. Is "counterfeit peace" a part of your marriage relationship? What would be the cost of making a commitment to work through issues instead of ignoring them? What would be the benefits?
